

1. What are the two factors that influence the formation of young people's identity today?

- Rapid changes in the world.
- Technological development.

2. Why can social media lead to an inaccurate understanding of some issues?

Because many young people rely on social media as their main source of information, which can sometimes lead to inaccurate ideas about society or its future.

3. Mention three ways that help young people strengthen their identity.

Any three of:

- Taking part in community and cultural activities.
- Meeting with specialists to correct misconceptions.
- Learning about their country's history and recent achievements through educational programmes.

4. How does the lack of job opportunities affect young people's view of their future?

It makes some young people feel unstable, which affects the way they see their future and their role in building society.

5. Who is responsible for supporting young people's identity? Mention three groups or institutions.

Any three of:

- Government institutions.
- The media.
- Youth organisations.